ORGANIC & FAIR TRADE SINCE '96

The Salt Spring story

Salt Spring Coffee was born back in 1996, when Mickey McLeod and his wife Robbyn Scott began roasting coffee beans in a converted popcorn maker at their Salt Spring Island home on Canada's West Coast.

Today, Salt Spring Coffee is one of Canada's largest and most respected macro-roasters. A Certified B Corporation since 2010, they are the only coffee company in Canada to be named "Best for the Environment"—not once, but twice.

They work directly with coffee growers and are "Fair for Life" certified by the Institute for Marketecology to ensure fair-trade practices at every stage of production. Their coffee is 100% organic.

Global Warming and your cup of Coffee

CNN Oct 17

Rising temperatures cause coffee beans to ripen too quickly and lose complex flavors.

- ◆ By 2050, the global demand for coffee will double. But there will be half as much suitable land to grow it on.
- ◆ A new study finds that Ethiopia, the world's fifth-largest coffee producer, could lose up to 60% of its suitable farming land by the end of this century because of climate change.
- ◆ Even if production drops in one country, such as Ethiopia, prices could drop at the same time in other major coffee-exporting countries, like Brazil or Vietnam, Neuschwander said.
